Reunion for Galt clan

The third annual reunion of the descendants of John Beggs Galt and Jennie McMurtry was held recently at Presqu'ile Provincial Park near Brighton.

The Galts emigrated from Carrickfergus, Northern Ireland and settled near Sillville where he established a blacksmith shop.

Descendants attended the reunion from an area stretching east to Kingston, west to Brampton, and north to Mattawa and Meaford.

Mrs. Beverley Finney (Lindsay) was convener of children's races.

Mrs. Pat Galt of Bath won the nail-driving contest for women. Derek Galt of Mattawa, Geraldine Tutt of Toronto and Gail Murphy of Loretto all took prizes for the bubble game contest.

A birthday prize went to Georgia Galt of Verona and Brett Taylor of Oshawa. Mrs. Ronald Galt of Napanee won the lucky draw.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Galt of Mattawa took the prize for travelling the farthest.

Three new additions were welcomed to the reunion this year. They are Adam, Cory and Wesley Galt. The youngest was 11-month-old Wesley of Verona who received a prize. Mrs. Nellis Robertson, 83, of Napanee received a prize for being the oldest.

Next year's reunion is planned at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Galt and family near Colborne.
